Food for Thought

The Gift Of Grace

I do not ask for mighty words
To leave the crowd impressed,
But grant my life may ring so true
My neighbor may be blessed.
The best witness for Christ shows God's grace and shares His love.

*By grace you have been saved through faith, and
that not of yourselves;
it is the gift of God.*

Ephesians 2:8 (NJKV)

Review and Summary Philemon

This brief little epistle is full of instruction for us. I see four things here that arrested my attention as I read this letter from Paul to Philemon.

1. Here is an example of true Christian love (v. 5).

Paul showed great love in his regard for Onesimus. He took this degraded, loathsome creature in. Once he had been converted by the grace of God, Paul regarded him and treated him as his own son. Though Onesimus and Timothy were very different men before they were converted (Timothy was a moral, upright young man. Onesimus was the off scouring of society.), after they were converted, they were both equal in Paul's eyes. (In Christ there is no difference.)

Philemon showed great brotherly love in his reception of Onesimus. Though Philemon had been greatly wronged by this man, he received him again into his household, freely forgiving him the wrong he had done (Matt. 6:14-15). I pray that God will give me such a tender spirit (Eph. 4:32).

(Matthew 6:14-15) For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: 15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

(Ephesians 4:32) And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

If God forgives us, surely we ought to forgive one another. If Christ receives us, surely we ought to receive one another. -- This is the kind of love that is the law that rules in the hearts of God's elect. (John 13:34-35).

2. Here is an example of substitutionary redemption (v. 18).

Onesimus had wronged Philemon. He had betrayed his master's trust, despised his master's goodness, and stolen his master's goods. Onesimus owed much to Philemon. But listen to this. Paul says, "If he hath wronged thee ought, put that on mine account."

That is exactly what the Lord Jesus Christ has done for us (Isa. 53:4-10).

3. Here is an example of divine forgiveness (v. 17).

Paul says, "If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself." Onesimus was forgiven through the intercession of another. He was accepted, not as a slave, but as a brother, an equal. And he was accepted because of another.

We have been forgiven through the intercession of Christ.

We have been accepted as the sons of God, in every way equal to Christ in God's sight (1 John 3:1).

We have been accepted because of another, even because of the Lord Jesus Christ.

4. But the thing which stands out most beautifully in the text is this. -- Here we have an example of God's wondrous, amazing, irresistible grace!
