Revealed Love Genesis 45:1-8, 10-15

Lesson Background and Introduction

Imagine yourself standing before Jesus, who has asked you to draw near, as Joseph told his brothers to draw near to him (Genesis 45:4). Jesus speaks and says, "I am Jesus, whom you crucified. Your sins are the reason I gave my life as a sacrifice on the cross. But don't be angry with yourself. I want to forgive you, not condemn you." Jesus does indeed say this, and He means it. Joseph's words about God's higher purpose being carried out can also be applied to Jesus. Men killed him because they wanted to reverse his influence, dishearten his followers, and destroy the movement he had begun. But God accomplished a great deliverance through the cross and the empty tomb. As Peter told the crowd gathered on the Day of Pentecost, "[Jesus] was handed over to you by God's deliberate plan and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross. But God raised him from the dead" (Acts 2:23-24). Salvation is truly a gift of God's grace (Ephesians 2:8-9). It must be received as such, without our placing conditions on it that God himself has never placed. Don't be angry with yourself. Like Joseph's brothers, you need to accept forgiveness.

God's plan - Joseph, now second in command to Pharaoh in Egypt, revealed himself to his stepbrothers. They had no idea the royal leader they bowed before asking for help was their own flesh and blood. "I am Joseph!" he finally announced to his brothers. They stood speechless, in shock. Joseph? Alive? A ruler in Egypt? The men fully expected Joseph to use his authority to retaliate for treating him horribly and selling him into slavery. They anticipated instant death. Instead, Joseph had mercy. He saw the love of God, His redemptive plan, which healed his wounds and enabled him to forgive. He consoled them to not be upset with themselves or fear him. He made clear that this was God's doing: He sent Joseph to Egypt to make sure his family, God's chosen people, survived the famine. Joseph moved on from the cruelty they did to him.

God's Purposes - Joseph sent his brothers home to get the rest of the family. He moved them to Goshen, in the Nile River delta, to provide for them throughout the remaining time of the famine. Joseph demonstrated his love and forgiveness by weeping over all his brothers.

God's Redemption - God is in the redemption business. He can take tragic past events and actions and turn them completely around. This gives individuals who have endured any adversity— abuse, abandonment, injustice—hope for God's restoration. We all can trust and rely on God's overwhelming love. He will demonstrate His compassion even in the worst situations.

God's Beauty from Ashes - Our world is fallen, tragedies happen, poor decisions are made, and consequences result. However, that does not mean that God doesn't care or is unaware. The Father does not always explain all the "why's" concerning His actions or lack of action. His ways are higher, and we may not always understand (Isa. 55:9). However, He uses every adverse situation for His glory and for an ultimate good.
